

Darwin Day 2010

University of Wisconsin Madison

Feb. 13

MORNING SESSION

- 9:00 am Charles Darwin and Orchids: Confessions of a 200 Year-Old Orchid Fanatic
Ken Cameron – UW-Madison Botany Department
- 10:30 am Leaping Lizards! Studies of Ecology and Evolution in the Caribbean
Jonathan Losos – Harvard University Museum of Comparative Zoology
- 11:45 am Teacher Workshop on Evolution over the lunch hour
Please contact Brooke Norsted to register (brooke@geology.wisc.edu)

AFTERNOON SESSION

- 1:00 pm Victory Alters Hormones, the Brain, and Future Ability to Compete
Catherine Marler – UW-Madison Departments of Psychology & Zoology
- 2:30 pm Panel Discussion on Communicating Science with Ron Seely – Wisconsin State Journal & UW Life Science Communications.
Sharon Dunwoody – UW School of Journalism and Mass Communication
David Tenenbaum – The Why Files
Steve Ackerman – UW Atmospheric and Ocean Sciences & CIMSS

FAMILY-FRIENDLY SCIENCE STATIONS - Explore the Tree of Life!

- 10am-3:30pm Learn about evolutionary science and how it affects all branches of the Tree of Life, at Exploration Stations staffed by UW-Madison students, faculty, and staff. Receive a prize for visiting all the branches of the Tree of Life!

Darwin Day is free and open to the public!

All events will be held in Microbial Sciences, located at Linden Dr. & Babcock St.
See www.map.wisc.edu for parking options.

For more information, please contact Brooke Norsted at brooke@geology.wisc.edu or 262-1412.
The Microcosm Café in Microbial Sciences will be open from 11:30 am-1:30 pm for our event.

www.geology.wisc.edu

Sponsored by:
THE EVOLUTION COORDINATING COMMITTEE
THE UW-MADISON DEPARTMENT OF GENETICS
THE UW-MADISON COLLEGE OF LETTERS & SCIENCE
THE UW-MADISON COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURAL & LIFE SCIENCES
THE IRA AND INEVA REILLY BALDWIN WISCONSIN IDEA ENDOWMENT
THE UW-MADISON GEOLOGY MUSEUM & DEPARTMENT OF GEOSCIENCE

evolution
matters